

2018 - BASIC PAEDIATRIC NDT COURSE (based on the Bobath Concept)

This multidisciplinary post-graduate course covers the assessment and treatment of children with cerebral palsy/cerebral-motor disturbances, presented under the auspices of the South African Neurodevelopmental Therapy Association (SANDTA)

COURSE LEADER:	Dianne Zeller
WHO CAN APPLY?	Qualified physio-, occupational and speech therapists.
DURATION:	7 weeks contact tutoring with additional online modules to be completed before the course starts Please note new dates
BLOCK 1:	13 August – 31 August 2018 (3 weeks)
BLOCK 2:	1 October – 26 October 2018 (4 weeks)
VENUE:	Pretoria/Johannesburg (Exact venues will be confirmed)
COURSE FEES:	SANDTA Members -R 25 850.00 Non-members - R28 435.00 International - R31 279.00

APPLICATION FORMS: To be downloaded from www.sandta.org.za

The course covers a problem-solving approach to the assessment and management of individuals with cerebral palsy, from childhood to adolescence. It includes:

- Understanding Typical and Atypical Development and its implication on Function and Participation
- Observation and Analytical skills
- Up-to-date Neuroscience and Theories of Motor Control
- Individualised management plans for each child, including Postural Management
- Orthopaedic and Medical aspects from a therapist's perspective
- Multidisciplinary approach, including Physiotherapy, Occupational Therapy and Speech Therapy aspects

A BIG EMPHASIS
THROUGHOUT
THE COURSE WILL BE ON TEACHING
SOUND
CLINICAL
REASONING